Baker Will Resign From Cabinet March 1

Washington, Nov. 11.—Custom decrees that every member of President Wilson's cabinet formally resign on March 1, but the indication here today was that every present member of the president's official family except one, will take this course in a perfectly perfunctory manner, knowing in advance the president won't accept the resignation. The one exception is Newton D. Baker, secretary of war. It is known he will hand in his resignation and mean it.

The president has plenty of time in which to make up his mind on Baker's successor, but gossip here is inclined to the belief that he would move Secretary of the Interior Lane to the war portfolio, and put some westerner on the job Lane now holds.

Charged with Attempt to Blackmail Embassy

Washington, Nov. 11.—Charged with attempting to blackmail a member of the German embassy, a man arrested by the Washington police was questioned at length this afternoon by officials of the justice department. It is alleged he attempted to sell to the embassy office letters which he said would prove damaging if published.

It was learned this afternoon that the man is Karl Graves, author of a book called "Secrets of the German war office."

HARVARD DEFEATS PRINCETON 3 TO 0

30,000 Watch Great Game Which Is Won by Harvard

By H. C. Hamilton

(United Press staff correspondent)

The Stadium, Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 11.—Harvard's football eleven, yanked from the dust by Percy D. Haughton, defeated Princeton, 3 to 0, here this afternoon and loomed again as the "all conquering" squad of the east's big three of 1911.

It was Princeton's first defeat of the year and it was in no way humiliating. Princeton was not out played, with the exception of the single instance when Harvard recovered the ball on the Princeton 20 yard line and Horween dropped kicked the ball over the posts for three points that spelled victory.

Horween proved as much of a star as the greatly touted Casey. For Princeton, Eddie Driggs lived up to his reputation as a punter.

Thirty thousand persons saw the game.

Horween kicked off to Moore, who ran the ball back seven yards. Driggs and Horween immediately started a punting duel in which Driggs excelled. Princeton's ball on its own 24 yard line. Driggs broke through for nine yards. He fumbled and Gennert recovered for Princeton on the Harvard 35 yard line. Thomas went around right end for six yards. Thomas dashed a round right end as the period ended with the ball on Harvard's 24 yard line. Score: Harvard 0; Princeton 0.

Princeton tried for a field goal from the 43 yard line. It failed. It rolled to Casey on the 15 yard line. He dashed to Princeton's 40 yard line.

With two smashes Horween made it first down on the fifty yard line.

Casey got away for twelve yards around left end. His interference was perfect. The suffering Harvard back twisted through for five yards more. Harvard lost the ball on downs on the Princeton 27 yard line.

Horween gained 20 yards on an exchange of punts. The ball was on Princeton's 40 yard line. Eddy fumbled and Horween fell on the ball. Horween tried a drop kick from the 40 yard line but failed.

On a fake kick formation from the 20 yard line Driggs gained 16 yards. Driggs then punted out of bounds to Harvard 24 yard line. Horween kicked forty six yards to Eddy.

Princeton gained 15 yards on a forward pass, Driggs to Thomas. Another aerial pass, Driggs to Eddy, carried the ball 20 yards to Harvard's 30 yard line.

Punk tried a place kick from the 43 yard line. The ball went beneath the cross bar. Horween punted 45 yards to the Princeton 39 yard line.

Third period.
Punk kicked off to Horween on the seven yard line. Horween passed the ball to Casey, who dashed 16 yards.

Horween kicked the Princeton 32 yard line. Driggs fumbled a punt 74 yards only 20 yards out of bounds. Horween and Casey made first down. Horween punted the ball to Princeton's 20 yard line. Casey again made first down.

Princeton was penalized ten yards and the ball was on the Princeton five yard line. Horween put a drop kick over the Princeton goal from the 25 yard line.

Harvard 3; Princeton 0.
Punk made a feeble kick-off to the Harvard 26 yard line. Casey went through for four yards and Horween kicked 45 yards. Driggs kicked 45-yards to Murray, who fumbled. Casey recovered on the Harvard 28 yard line. Casey reeled off 27 yards on a trick kick formation. Casey twisted sixteen yards through left tackle.

Brown, who replaced Thomas, recovered a fumble by Casey and dashed twenty-six yards before he was downed on the Harvard 49 yard line by Harte. Brown had a clear field but could not distance the speedy Harte. The period ended with the ball on the Harvard 42 yard line.

Fourth Period.
Harvard attempted a double pass and lost eight yards. Flowers punted 54 yards. Ames smashed through for five yards.

Brown went through right tackle for fifteen. Driggs kicked to the Harvard 23 yard line. Flowers kicked 45 yards. The ball was called back and Princeton penalized five yards for off-side. It gave Harvard first down. The Princeton line held in mid-field. The ball was in the middle of the field as the game ended.

Final score, Harvard 3, Princeton 0.
